PLAINTIFF'S COMPLAINT AND DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

There is no other civil action pending in this Honorable Court or any other Court arising out of the same transaction and occurrence.

INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff, Dr. Phyllis M. Stallings, was forced into retirement by Defendant in violation of her rights under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), and the Michigan Persons with Disabilities Act (PWDCRA).

On August 26, 2013, Plaintiff reported to her assigned worksite, Carver Elementary at 7:30 a.m., and signed the sign-in sheet for teachers' signatures. Plaintiff verbally requested Principal Sabrina Evans for permission to be allowed to report to Human Resources off campus in the Fisher Building. Principal Evans verbally gave her consent, after photocopying documents issued by Plaintiff's surgeon.

Plaintiff met with Employee Health Services (EHS) Executive Director, Todd Faison, at HR, Director of Placement, Cassandra Washington-Latham and Chief of Human Resources, Gwendolyn A. de Jongh, Esq. While trying to convey her predicament to Ms. Washington-Latham, she asked Ms. Washington-Latham may she be allowed to show her documents to her, and she was informed by Ms. Washington-Latham, that she didn't have time to look at Dr. Stallings' documents. Chief of HR, Gwendolyn A. de Jongh, Esq. asked Dr. Stallings was she ZA endorsed to teach an early childhood classroom where there were eight (8) teacher vacancies in the District, and Dr. Stallings replied, "No, I'm not ZA endorsed, rather, I'm nationally certified in the United States to teach early childhood education (ECE). Early Childhood Education is where I've taught practically my entire ten (10) years as a DPS employee." Ms. de Jongh informed Dr. Stallings to return home, and await her decision. On 8/26/2013, Ms. de Jongh's assistant, Valerie Hampton telephoned Dr. Stallings' home informing her to report to Carver Elementary on 8/27/2013 for work per Ms. de Jongh's decision. Dr. Stallings asked Ms. Hampton what grade level had she been assigned and Ms. Hampton's reply was, "I don't know, that's up to Principal Evans." Dr. Stallings informed Ms. Hampton that she had been given medical forms by EHS executive director, Todd Faison that day, to have completed by her surgeon. Ms. Hampton advised Dr.

Stallings to continue to wait on her medical forms she had submitted to her surgeon. Dr. Stallings used allotted days in her sick bank while she convalesced at home, and continued to attend rehabilitation twice weekly at DMC's Brasza Institute.

On September 3, 2013, Dr. Stallings returned all forms given to her by EHS executive director Todd Faison, completed by her surgeon, to EHS employee, Pamela Blakey in HR. Ms. Blakey told Dr. Stallings that Mr. Faison wasn't working that day which was Tuesday, the day after the Labor Day holiday. Ms. Blakey took Dr. Stallings' FMLA and Health Care Provider forms and stamped them with the date, the wrong date. When Dr. Stallings returned home, she and her husband Horace Stallings, realized that Ms. Blakey had stamped HR's and her copies with an incorrect date; instead of 9/3/13, she stamped 9/9/13. Mr. Stallings became alarmed when he saw the egregious error, and he personally returned to HR on 9/3/13, and asked Ms. Blakey to rectify her mistake; she simply wrote a 3 on top of the 9. At least that's what he thinks occurred, he remained in the lobby while the receptionist confronted Ms. Blakey.

While at the rehabilitation institute on 9/5/13, Dr. Stallings received a telephone call from a colleague apprising her of a specific opening at Fleming Elementary. She was eager to get placement at this venue because it was near the rehabilitation institute, unlike Carver Elementary, which was a block or so from the city of Dearborn. The following morning, Friday 9/6/13, Dr. Stallings contacted Assistant Superintendent of Primary Education (prekindergarten through third grade) for Detroit Public Schools, Wilma Taylor-Costen (313)303-0257 to see if she could fill a teacher vacancy in ECE at Fleming Elementary. Dr. Stallings has a master degree in ECE from Howard University (1991), a doctorate (Ed.D. 2011) in curriculum and instruction with a concentration in ECE from Wayne State University, and an Ed.S. in educational leadership (administration) also from WSU. She has both a Michigan certificate in administration (K-12) and teaching endorsing her to teach prekindergarten through eighth grade self-contained. Ms. Taylor-Costen's reply to Dr. Stallings' request was, "I'm in traffic, and I don't have time to talk with you Dr. Stallings, you must ask HR to be placed in ECE." Dr. Stallings has worked in the ECE program at DPS for ten (10) years. When Dr. Stallings began working for DPS in December 2002, she was paid a three (3) year signing bonus to teach in the ECE program because it was considered a shortage area at the time. This makes the second time Dr. Stallings has requested placement in her endorsement area, ECE. On 8/26/13, she apprised Chief of Human Resources, Gwendolyn A. de Jongh, Esq. of her ECE certification, and desire to be returned to ECE. Dr. Stallings' desire to be accommodated in an ECE teaching position was ignored by two (2) DPS executives; Assistant Superintendent Taylor-Costen, and Chief of HR de Jongh. On 9/6/13, Dr. Stallings emailed placement counselor Gregory Stokes, executive director for placement Cassandra Washington-Latham, and superintendent of academics Karen Ridgeway, requesting that she be returned to ECE. She stated specifically in Ms. Ridgeway's email that her surgeon would permit her to work in ECE. The only reply she received from the three (3) emails was from Mr. Stokes, advising her to email executive director of placement, Ms. Washington-Latham. At this juncture, five (5) HR executives were apprised by Dr. Stallings that she would like to be returned to the ECE program. Her efforts were in vain. She continued phoning in sick.

On Monday 9/9/13, Dr. Stallings once again went to HR, this time to see if she could meet with executive director of placement, Cassandra Washington-Latham. Human Resources receptionist Mark, informed Dr. Stallings that Ms. Washington-Latham was on the telephone, and following that task, she would be enroute to a conference, and she said that she wouldn't be able to meet with Dr. Stallings. Keep in mind, on 8/26/13, Ms. Washington-Latham informed Dr. Stallings that she didn't have time to peruse her medical documents, either, and she told Dr. Stallings that she wasn't going to give her a job she wasn't qualified to do. Dr. Stallings saw HR director, William (Bill) Lyons that morning, and she requested an ECE teaching position, and Mr. Lyons' reply to Dr. Stallings was, "No, ECE has to ask for you, and besides, you can't walk." He further informed Dr. Stallings that she was to report to Carver Elementary on 9/10/13 because DPS was contemplating her termination. Now on Friday 9/6/13, assistant superintendent of ECE, Wilma Taylor-Costen informed Dr. Stallings via telephone that she must let HR know her request to be placed in ECE. She too, didn't have time to talk to Dr. Stallings about an ECE placement because she was in traffic. It was a "yes" or "no" answer. Human Resources director, Bill Lyons, on Monday 9/9/13, told Dr. Stallings the opposite of what Ms. Taylor-Costen told her on 9/6/13. He said that ECE had to request Dr. Stallings in order for her to get an ECE teaching position. Are you losing count? Human Resources Director Bill Lyons is executive #6 who was informed by Dr. Stallings since 8/26/13 that she wished to be returned to the ECE program. Stay focused please, the "dog and pony" show is almost over!

The coup de grace was the tumultuous encounter Dr. Stallings had with Employee Health Services (EHS) Executive Director, Todd Faison. Mr. Faison is the HR executive on 8/26/13 who gave Dr. Stallings the medical forms to give to her surgeon.

After learning of her impending termination from HR director Bill Lyons, Dr. Stallings met with Mr. Faison to apprise him of Mr. Lyons' threat. He responded by slamming his right hand on the table, and bellowing, "That's because you won't go to work!" Dr. Stallings asked Mr. Faison, executive #7, could she be returned to ECE. Mr. Faison didn't respond to the question. After his cacophonous retort, Dr. Stallings hurriedly grabbed her walker, and inched her path to the closed office door before Mr. Faison became even further unhinged.

Once home, Mr. Faison issued an ultimatum via email, apprising Dr. Stallings that her request for an illness leave was denied, and that she would receive no accommodations, and that she must immediately report to her assigned worksite which was Carver Elementary, still no grade level assigned, retire or resign, or face termination from the District.

At no time, did Detroit Public Schools' officials engage in the requisite "case by case interactive process" stipulated by the ADA, with Dr. Stallings.

Tuesday 9/10/13, Dr. Stallings reported to HR, and completed The Separation of Service document, and accepted her coerced retirement from her employer of ten (10) years, Detroit Public Schools.

RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff requests that this honorable Court enter an order granting her: All available damages for lost wages, seniority, and benefits, past and future, emotional distress, mental anguish, humiliation, outrage, embarrassment, pain and suffering, loss of job opportunity, loss of earning capacity to which she is entitled, and award such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.
